Panaji, 9th May, 1969.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

New Delhi, 1st September, 1966.

Notification

2/6/64-AIS(IV)

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of Section 3 of the All-India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951), the Central Government, after consultation with the Governments of the States concerned, hereby makes the following rules, namely:

1. Short title and Commencement. — (1) These rules may be called the Indian Forest Service (Recruitment) Rules, 1966.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from 1st July, 1966.

2. Definitions. — In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires, —

(a) "Commission" means the Union Public Service Commission;

(b) "Scheduled Castes" means such castes, races or tribes or parts of or groups within such castes, races or tribes as are deemed under article 341 of the Constitution to be Scheduled Castes for the purposes of the Constitution;

(c) "Scheduled Tribes" means such tribes or tribal communities or parts of or groups within such tribes or tribal communities as are deemed under article 342 of the Constitution to be Scheduled Tribes for the purposes of the Constitution;

(d) "Service" means the Indian Forest Service;

(e) "State" means a State specified in the First Schedule to the Constitution and includes a Union Territory;

(f) "State Cadre" and "Joint Cadre" have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Indian Forest Service (Cadre) Rules, 1966;

(g) "State Forest Service" means: —

(i) any such service in a State, being a service connected with forestry, and the members thereof having gazetted status, as the Central Government may, in consultation with the State Government, approve for the purposes of these rules; or

(ii) any service in such Central Civil Post, Class I or Class II, connected with forestry, as may be approved by the Central Government for the purposes of these rules.

(h) "State Government concerned", in relation to a Joint Cadre, means the Governments of all the States for which the Joint Cadre is constituted and includes the Government of a State nominated by the Governments of all such States to represent them in relation to a particular matter.

3. Constitution of the Service. — The Service shall consist of the following persons, namely: —

(a) Members of the State Forest Service recruited to the service at its initial constitution in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (1) of rule 4; and

(b) persons recruited to the service in accordance with the provisions of sub-rules (2) to (4) of rule 4.

4. Method of recruitment to the Service. — (1) As soon as may be after the commencement of these rules, the Central Government may recruit to the Service any person from amongst the members of the State Forest Service adjudged suitable in accordance with such regulations as the Central Government may make in consultation with the State Governments and the Commission:

Provided that no member holding a post referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (g) of rule 2 and so recruited shall, at the time of recruitment, be allocated to any State other than the cadre of a Union territory.

(2) After the recruitment under sub-rule (1), subsequent recruitment to the Service, shall be by the following methods, namely:—

(a) by a competitive examination;

(b) by promotion of substantive members of the State Forest Service.

(3) Subject to the provisions of these rules, the method or methods of recruitment to be adopted for the purpose of filling any particular vacancy or vacancies in the Service as may be required to be filled during any particular period of recruitment, and the number of persons to be recruited by each method shall be determined on each occasion by the Central Government in consultation with the Commission:

Provided that where any such vacancy or vacancies relates or relate to a State Cadre or a Joint Cadre, the State Government concerned shall also be consulted.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (2), if in the opinion of the Central Government the exigencies of the service so require, the Central Government may, after consultation with the State Governments and the Commission, adopt such methods of recruitment to the Service other than those specified in the said sub-rule, as it may by regulations made in this behalf prescribe.

5. Disqualifications for appointment.—* (1) No person shall be qualified for appointment to the service unless he is a citizen of India, or belongs to such categories of persons as may, from time to time be notified in this behalf by the Central Government.

(2) No person who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the service:

Provided, that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any person from the operation of this sub-rule.

(3) No married woman shall be entitled as of right to be appointed to the Service, and where a woman appointed to the Service subsequently marries, the Central Government may, if the maintenance of efficiency of the Service so requires, call upon her to resign.

(4) Subject to the provisions contained in sub-rule (3), no woman who is married to any person who has a wife living shall be eligible for appointment to the Service:

Provided that the Central Government, may, if it is satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any such woman from the operation of this sub-rule.

6. Appointment to the Service.— All appointments to the Service shall be made by the Central Government and no such appointment shall be made except after recruitment by one of the methods specified in rule 4.

7. Recruitment by competitive examination.—(1) A competitive examination for recruitment to the Service shall be held at such intervals as the Central Government may, in consultation with the Commission, from time to time, determine.

(2) The examination shall be conducted by the Commission in accordance with such regulations as the Central Government may from time to time make in consultation with the Commission and the State Governments.

(3) Appointments to the Service will be subject to orders regarding special representation in the Service for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes issued by the Central Government from time to time.

8. Recruitment by promotion.— (1) The Central Government may, on the recommendations of the State Government concerned and in consultation with the Commission and in accordance with such regulations as the Central Government may, after consultation with the State Governments and the Commission, from time to time, make, recruit to the Service persons by promotion from amongst the substantive members of the State Forest Service.

(2) Where a vacancy occurs in a State Cadre which is to be filled under the provision of this rule, the vacancy shall, be filled by promotion of a member of the State Forest Service.

(3) Where a vacancy occurs in a Joint Cadre which is to be filled under the provision of this rule, the vacancy shall, subject to any agreement in this behalf, be filled by promotion of a member of the State Forest Service of any of the State constituting the group.

9. Number of persons to be recruited under rule 8.— (1) The number of persons recruited under rule 8 in any State or group of States shall not, at any time, exceed 33½ per cent of the number of senior duty posts borne on the cadre of that State, or group of States.

(2) For the purpose of determining the percentage specified in sub-rule (1) the officers of a State Forest Service, who may be appointed to any of the vacancies caused by the transfer of cadre officers to another service or by their quasi-permanent deputation to the Centre shall be excluded.

10. Interpretation.— If any question arises as to the interpretation of these rules, the same shall be decided by the Central Government.
